

“And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.” -- Zechariah 6:1

The two mountains of brass (bronze) are Mount Moriah, where the Dome of the Rock currently rests, and the Mount of Olives, site of our Lord Jesus' ascension and future return, which is to the east. The Valley of Jehoshaphat (Kidron) rests between these two veritable “mountains of brass.” photo used by permission
